

Year 8 Curriculum

Autumn Term Day of the Dead	Spring Term Portraits	Summer Term Buildings
Day of the Dead is a cultural study of the Mexican Festival focussing on pattern making skills, 3D modelling and decoration skills. Students look at other artists' work and employ their techniques to skilfully develop their own work.	Students will look at portraits through the ages and in detail at features of the face and at the work of Opie and Picasso to produce a self portrait in a minimalist style.	Students will work in the style of Stephen Wilstshire, Hundertwasser and Gaudi with a double page of research and drawings focussing on different media.